

The Grace Effect
From Benefit to Abandonment
Luke 15:25-31

11/12/17

When we abandon grace we tend to set a different standard than God requires.

In the story: the older son added to the standard his father set.

Grace + x ≠ Grace

The Grace Effect
From Benefit to Abandonment
Luke 15:25-31

11/12/17

When we abandon grace we tend to forget God's blessings.

In the story: the older son forgot his father's grace

When we abandon grace we tend to trade genuine relationship for ritual.

In the story: the older son worked for his father, but he really didn't know him.
