

On Thursday, May 23rd, our Chancel Choir will be leaving for New York City to attend rehearsals on Friday and Saturday, May 24th and 25th, with singers from around North America. Following a dress rehearsal on Sunday, May 26th, the members of our choir, along with the other participating ensembles, will be performing with full orchestra at the afternoon concert at Carnegie Hall. The concert choirs and orchestra will be presenting:

Immortal Invisible:
The Music of Pepper Choplin and Mary McDonald
Stern Auditorium/Perelman Stage, Carnegie Hall
Sunday, May 26, 2019 2:00 PM

The Music of Pepper Choplin
Pepper Choplin, Composer/Conductor
Featuring Distinguished Concerts Orchestra
and Distinguished Concerts Singers International

The Music of Mary McDonald
Jonathan Griffith, DCINY Artistic Director and Principal Conductor
Mary McDonald, Composer-in-Residence and Piano
Featuring Distinguished Concerts Orchestra
and Distinguished Concerts Singers International

Beethoven: Piano Concerto #2
Miran Vaupotic, Conductor Dmitry Ishkhanov, Pianist
Featuring Distinguished Concerts Orchestra

Following the concert, our Chancel Choir will attend a Gala Reception and Dinner for all the participating ensembles. The return trip is Monday, May 27th. The Chancel Choir looks forward to sharing the concert music of